COMPLAINTS.

It is particularly requested that complaint be made in every instance that an apparent irregularity in the delivery occurs (more especially in the clearance and receipt of correspondence posted in the pillars) as in case of neglect of duty, the non-discovery in one instance is likely to lead to a repetition of the offence.

Complaints, addressed to the Postmaster, should be made as early as possible, and should be accompanied by the envelope or cover showing the L. P. O. stamp, etc.

REGISTRATION.

Registration must be effected one hour before the usual time of closing mails.

Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong cover securely fastened, and must be accompanied by the sender's name and address. When posted it must be handed in at the Post Office and a receipt obtained. In no case can a registered letter be posted through a pillar or post box.

The loss of a postal cover (more especially when registered) is a very rare occurrence. Nevertheless large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, even if registered.

Any enquiries with regard to non-delivery of registered mail-matter must be made within twelve months from date of posting at the office where the "Registry Receipt" was granted.

PRIVATE CONTRACTS.

Private contracts can be made for the delivery of newspapers only, sent to the L. P. O. direct from the publishers; and also with other Post Offices for delivery of mail-matter received from them. Further particulars can be obtained upon application to the Postmaster.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS.

It is particularly requested that notice of change of address be given to the Postmaster in writing as soon as possible. By the public giving attention to this request many complaints and irregularities may be avoided.

LETTER BOXES

Should be provided at private residences, hotels, etc.

The delivery of mail-matter would be greatly facilitated if private letter boxes were affixed to house-doors; this applies more especially to the Bubbling Well Road and other outlying districts, hotels, and boarding houses.

UNCLAIMED CORRESPONDENCE.

Mail-matter which has been refused, or which remains unclaimed for any reason, will be returned to sender after sufficient time has elapsed for the addressee to have claimed it.

By order of the Council.

R. F. THORBURN,
Secretary.

Council Room,

Shanghai, March, 1893.
